Texas Hurricane Harvey Recovery Guide

Information for Communities and Survivors Recovering from Hurricane Harvey

Registration Deadline for Disaster Assistance Now November 30

Texans affected by Hurricane Harvey now have until November 30, 2017, to register for federal assistance.

The deadline was November 24, however, an additional six days gives survivors more time through the Thanksgiving holiday. Federal assistance includes help for temporary housing, rental assistance and repair or replacement of damaged homes for eligible individuals and families who have suffered losses as a result of the storm.

Survivors may register in many ways:

- Online at DisasterAssistance.gov.
- Calling the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (voice, 711/VRS-Video Relay Service)
- (TTY: 800-462-7585). Multilingual operators are available (press 2 for Spanish).
- Via the FEMA app, available for Apple and Android mobile devices. To download visit: fema.gov/mobile-app.
- Visiting a Disaster Recovery Center (DRC). Find the location of nearby DRCs online at www.fema.gov/DRC.

Hurricane Harvey: Rumor Control

RUMOR: Some survivors believe that because they have homeowner's/flood insurance they will be ineligible for FEMA assistance.

FACTS: This report is False. Although FEMA cannot duplicate insurance benefits; federal assistance can help insured survivors in a variety of ways, including Rental Assistance to those who qualify, advances on insurance settlements that are delayed by more than 30 days and help with needs not covered by your insurance policy.

RUMOR: FEMA is denying all renters and uninsured survivors affected by Harvey.

FACTS: This report is False. FEMA assistance is available to eligible homeowners and renters, insured and uninsured alike in disaster designated communities.

Hotel Stays Extended to Nov. 27 for Eligible Harvey Survivors

Eligible Hurricane Harvey survivors receiving Transitional Shelter Assistance (TSA) may receive an extension to stay temporarily in hotels while they look for an alternative place to live.

Disaster survivors with a continuing need for the hotel sheltering program may be extended to Nov. 27. However, there is a mid-term eligibility review on Nov. 7 where survivors participating in TSA will receive a phone call, email, and/or text message advising them whether they have continued eligibility for assistance through a TSA participating hotel.
